Mr. Robert J. Winchester
Special Assistant to the Secretary of the Army
for Legislative Affairs
The Pentagon
Washington, DC 20301

Dear ^{Bob} Mr. Winchester:

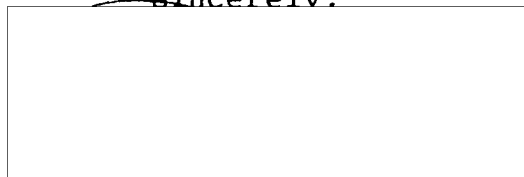

As you know, we are now in the process of preparing the draft Fiscal Year 1988 Intelligence Authorization Bill. We expect to circulate a first draft for comment within the Intelligence Community by mid-November.

The Army, of course, has two proposals contained in the Legislative Program for the 100th Congress that you have requested be included in the bill: "Secure Promotions for Certain Military Intelligence Officers" (#100/1 - 34) and "Intelligence Identities Protection Act (Amendment)" (#100/1 - 35).

To ensure these proposals are included in the draft bill, it is necessary that we receive from you, no later than 7 November, the actual language that you want incorporated. Specifically, we need for both proposals: the legislative language itself; the "section-by-section" analysis; the "changes in existing law" section; and the cost analysis. With respect to the first proposal, we assume that it will be similar to the secure promotion proposal made last, the essential difference being that last year's was applicable to all the services, whereas this year's will be applicable only to the Army.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Legislation Division
Office of Congressional Affairs
